The Mille Miglia Museum

This museum is a must for all those who love the Mille Miglia, for classic car fans, and for people who are attracted to the fascinating atmosphere of the past. It opened in 2004 in what was once the Monastery of Sant'Eufemia founded in 1008, on the east side of the City of Brescia, and offers an interesting testimonial to history, culture and documentation on the race from Brescia. By following the red stripe on the museum's floor, the itinerary takes the visitor through nine sections: seven for the Historic Mille Miglia 1927 - 1957, one for the three Mille Miglia Rallyes 1958 - 1961, and one for the present-day Mille Miglia. Each section has descriptive panels (showing history, costumes, social and political states), audiovisual effects, and screens with films of the times. The Museum is open to the public from Tuesday to Sunday, and offers an emotion-filled visit, with many interesting insights on the Mille Miglia world and its undying legend.
