

It was nice to see that hard-trier, Mrs. Whincop, win the 1,100 c.c. Sports Car Class in her red sports Balilla Fiat with 1,100 c.c. Balilla engine, her red outfit matching the car, which carried a terse political notice on its tail, anent the coming motorless regime. Her husband had already sent an even more pungent telegram to No. 10, Downing Street.
