Car Racing at Goodwood

THIRTY different makes of cars-I ranging from midget 500c.c.'s to the modern Grand Prix cars of Britain and Italy-will be seen at Goodwood's race meeting on September 18th. The eight events, for which over 100 entries have been received, will include four events for sports models and four for racing cars. Lord Strathcarron, Sir F. H. B. Samuelson, Sir Clive Edwards, Miss Betty Haig, Miss D. Patten and Mrs. Monica Whincop are among the competitors. Other drivers include a farmer, brewer, journalist, film producer, artist, and representatives of many other trades and professions. The main event of the day is the Goodwood Trophy Race, with such well-known drivers as Leslie Johnson. R. Parnell, F. R. Gerard, B. Bira (in other words Prince Birabongse of Siam), John Bolster and H. L. Brooke taking part.
