

Under a swarm of hovering Flying Saucers, crowds pack the 42nd Paris Auto Salon—world's largest international car exhibit—held in the vast Grand Palais.

PARIS

Like the Americans, the British held back most of their 1956 announcements for the London Show; one fine example, however, of Italian coachwork on a British chassis was this handsome Jaguar by Ghia.

The Alfa Romeo stand attracted attention with Ghia's 4-seater Giulietta convertible, but Farina gave the trim lines to this Giulietta Sprint shown here.

MILLANTA