Augusta Road Race Slated For Today

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)-Fourteen cars, led by Texan Jim Hall's Chevy-powered Chapparal, flattened the Augusta International Speedway record Saturday qualifying for Sunday's inaugural U.S. road racing and manufacturer's championship race.

Hall's best lap, giving him the pole position in Sunday's race for points toward the U.S. driver's championship, was 1:47.2-which works out to 100.7 mph over the twisting threemile course.

The best lap ever done here before was turned in by Fireball Roberts at 93 mph in winning last year's Augusta 510 for stock cars.

Hall, who builds the Chapparal, was closely followed by the powerful Ford-powered King Cobras of Carroll Shelby, Dave McDonald's Cobra turned the course an even second slower than Hall, and defending road racing champion Bob Holbert was 7-10ths of a second slower than his teammate.

Buck Fulp, driving for the Ferrari-sponsored North American Racing Team, turned the course in 1:52. Fulp, of Anderson, S.C., was driving the prototype Ferrari 250 LM grand touring car in its first race.
